

Road Safety Wales

Road Safety Awards 2008

The annual Welsh Road Safety Awards recognise the good road safety practice, innovative projects and personal contributions being undertaken in Wales. The Award Scheme publicises and raises awareness of the contributions towards road casualty reduction targets. There are five award categories:

Community Award - Recognising the work of Voluntary Groups, Health Authorities and partnerships involved in road accident prevention	Education Award - For staff and pupils/students who have undertaken innovative road safety projects and other road safety activity
Individual Award - For anyone in Wales who has shown a sustained or unique contribution to road safety and accident prevention	Commercial Award - For businesses and organisations in Wales who have supported and/or encouraged road safety promotion
School Crossing Patrol Award - Recognising an individual school crossing patrol who has shown dedication and commitment to their position over a sustained period of time

Nominations should be submitted on the attached form, (accompanied by any relevant supporting material) no later than Friday 22 August 2008. The Award winners will be invited to receive their Award at the Road Safety Wales Conference dinner on Monday 29 September at the Future Inns, Cardiff. The Award winners in each category will receive £100 and a souvenir gift.
